EMBRACING FASHION

Why you should show off your true self and engage with alternative subcultures with CorvidCasual

SELF EXPRESSION

Self-expression builds confidence and independence, which in turn contributes to healthy relationships.

Hiding yourself can lead to self-doubt, people pleasing behaviors, and loss of sense of self.

FASHION

For many, how they dress is an important part of who they are.

The alternative fashion subcultures give youth a gateway to express their identity outside of conventional standards, creating empowerment with similar individuals.

Clothing portrays emotions and personality traits, telling others a lot about who the wearer is just by first glance.
